TEAMS IN TWILIGHT LEAGUE IN DEADLOCK FOR THE FIRST PLACE

As they now stand the Christian, Baptist and Methodist teams of the Twilight League are all tied with a percentage of 500, each having won one game and lost one. The Presbyterian team has no percentage yet, having neither won or lost a game. The first and only game of its schedule with the Christian team resulted in a tie score. The second game was postponed on account of rain. Tomorrow evening, however, the Presbyterians and Methodists will face each other and it will be a red-hot battle. If the Methodists capture it, they will be in the lead, while the loss will be a cellar position for the Presbyterians. The following is the standing of the teams to date:

	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Christian	1	1	1	.500
Baptist	1	1	0	.500
Methodist	1	1	0	.500
Presbyterian	0	1	0

FOOTLIGHT FLASHES.

BY BEAU RIALTO.

(Written for the United Press.)
NEW YORK, May 18.—"A Modern Eve," a musical comedy adapted from a foreign source for the American stage by William M. Hough and Benjamin Hapgood Burt, was the first of this season's crop of summer shows to reach Broadway. The attraction began its engagement at the Casino Theatre recently with a cast of principals that include William Morris, Ernest Glynn, Cyril Chadwick, Alexander Clark, Misses Lella Hughes, Hazel Cox, Dorothy Webb, George Drew Mendum and the international dancers, Frank Hale and Signe Paterson.

The story is a good natured satire on the emancipation of women. In a certain family are found a determined wife and mother who sets about to establish new standards for women in domestic, social and commercial life. She herself is an attorney, and her two daughters she has developed into an artist and a physician, each wedded to her calling and trained never to be wedded to anything else.

The husband and father assumes the only family duties left, those of chief steward of the household. All goes well in the modern Eve's modern garden of Eden until three real men intrude. One is a former suitor for her own hand and the other two are dauntless young chaps who make no concealment of their designs on the two daughters. The latter would obey mother and continue to be superior to masculine allurements, so there is much mental, comic and romantic strife for all concerned.

The music is by Jean Gilbert and Victor Hallender, whose score contains fifteen numbers of popular variety. The comedy is in two acts, with scenes laid in France.

"The Only Girl" continues to be one of the popular musical comedies in New York. Although eight months have already elapsed since New York first saw and applauded this delightful musical comedy as being not only the best of the many joint writings of Henry Blossom and Victor Herbert, but the most charming play of its kind seen on Broadway for many years, large and enthusiastic audiences fill the Lyric theatre at every performance.

It is agreeable to note that Wilda Bennett, Grace Edmond, Josephine Whittell, Vivian Wessell, Louise Kelley, Marjorie Oviatt, Joanne Darya, Gladys Schultz, Miriam Mosby, Grace Langdon, Thurston Hall, John Findlay, Ernest Torrence, Jed Prouty, Richard Bartlett and all the others who have helped to make "The Only Girl" successful still remain in their original roles.

P. A. just-jams-joy against your palate!

No matter whether you pack your old jimmy pipe brimful or roll a makin's cigarette, Prince Albert certainly will make you feel like a two-year-old on the tobacco question just as soon as you hitch it up to a match. And that's a fact!

You can't anymore tell how good P. A. is just from talking about it than you can judge the depth of a well from the length of its pump handle. You get personal information dug right out of a tidy red tin or toppy red bag quick as you can conveniently beat it to the nearest shop that sells tobacco!

No matter how much you think you can't smoke a pipe, or roll a makin's cigarette, no matter how much you have been tongue-scorned, you can smoke a pipe or roll a cigarette if you'll take a few grains of faith and believe in Prince Albert. It can't bite your tongue and can't parch your throat, because the bite and the parch are cut out by a patented process owned exclusively by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company.

No other tobacco can be like Prince Albert. You'll get the quick cue on that!

Gather round here a minute!

First thing you do next, buy some Prince Albert and have a party. Get chummy with it in the tidy red tin and you'll mighty soon graduate to the crystal-glass pound humidor that's a thing of beauty and a joy forever. It keeps Prince Albert at the high top-notch of perfection—and keeps you jimmy pipe joy'us and cigarette makin's happy!

PRINCE ALBERT

Buy P. A. everywhere in toppy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; pound and half-pound tin humidors—and that classy pound crystal-glass humidor.

MEETING ON SATURDAY WILL SET DATES FOR HORSE AND MULE SHOW

FIRST ANNUAL EVENT IN UMATILLA COUNTY WILL BE PLANNED.

Secretary Lassen Believes Show Will Be Very Creditable One—This County Leads in Number of Pure-Bred Stallions—Farmers and Stockmen Will Be Interested.

For the purpose of setting dates for the first annual Umatilla county horse and mule show, the recently organized Umatilla county branch of the Oregon Horse Breeders' association will hold a meeting in this city Saturday afternoon, May 22. The meeting will be held in the headquarters of the Farmers Union.

Dr. C. W. Lassen, who is secretary of the association, believes the show this fall will be a very creditable one. With this county leading in the number of pure-bred stallions, he thinks there should be no difficulty in finding the material for the exhibition. "The horses are here," he said today, "and our purpose will be to interest the farmers and stockmen to the extent that they will bring in the best of their string." The show will do more than anything else to stimulate the raising of good stock, he believes.

ENGLISH ROYALTY QUILTS THE TURKISH CIGARETTE

KING GEORGE TAKES TO EGYPTIAN BLEND—PRINCE OF WALES TO PIPE.

LONDON, May 11.—(By Mail to New York.)—Since Turkey's entrance into the war, Turkish cigarettes are taboo in England.

King George who rarely smokes cigars used to smoke Turkish cigarettes with a relish. Now, it is learned he has taken to Egyptian blends. The Prince of Wales, whose short gold tipped Turkish cigarettes were well known to fellow army officers at the beginning of the war, now finds consolation in a favorite briar pipe, in which he smokes a blend of Egyptian and Virginia tobacco. He does not prefer the Turkish. He still smokes a cigarette occasionally, however. They are especially made and a scant two inches long. This is because the prince so often finds himself in situations in which smoking is not correct that half the cigarettes he smokes are barely lighted and thrown away.

London tobacco dealers are authority for the statement that Turkish tobacco has practically disappeared from the British market since Turkey declared hostilities, and in many shops they are not now offered for sale.

The British smoking public is following the king and prince. There is no sympathy for Turkish tobacco.

No doubt you are talked about as much as you talk about others.

People who have most cause to feel blue seldom have the blues.
